Miguel Miranda, former President of the Argentine National Economic Council, has acquired ownership of the Talleres Graficos Sur, printing shop for the Uruguayan government newspaper, Accion, for the purpose of publishing a pro-Peron newspaper in Uruguay. Ownership of the printing establishment was obtained by Miranda through Juan Carlos Gomez Folle, director of Uruguayan penal institutions, and through Dr. Julio Cesar Cerdeiras Alonso, former director of La Razon. Miranda hopes to begin publication of his newspaper, under the direction of Dr. Cerdeiras Alonso, in April or early May.
